

Museums and Institutions

- Philadelphia Museum of Art

Home to the world's most important collection of Duchamp's work

- Centre National d'Art et Culture Georges Pompidou:

The Paris museum of modern and contemporary art that houses works by Duchamp

- Bibliothèque Kandinsky

Document and research centre of the Centre Pompidou

- Dadabase

Online Catalog of The Museum of Modern Art Library, Archives and Study Centers

- Department of Fine Art at University of Toronto

Includes list of art and Art History resources

- Fine Arts Department, Okanagan University College

Contains departmental information, image galleries, and a list of online art resources

Tate

Home site to Tate Organizations in UK

- Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art

Consisting five Galleries in Edinburgh and two partner galleries in the North and South of Scotland

- The Arts and Humanities Research Board \(AHRB\)

Supporting highest quality research and postgraduate training in the arts and humanities

- Edward James Foundation, West Dean College

Postgraduate study in conservation-restoration and visual and applied arts

- Whitworth Art Gallery

The Whitworth Art Gallery in Manchester, north west England, is home to an impressive range of watercolours, prints, drawings, modern art and sculpture, as well as the largest collections of textiles and wallpapers outside London

- Mary Louise Reynolds Collection

A wealth of resource including Dada and Surrealism documents, essays, and links in the Mary Reynolds Collection at the Art Institute of Chicago

-